

Tools

A supportive reference that helps research teams identify tools that can support UX/UI activities at different project stages. Tools are presented as contextual examples rather than prescriptive recommendations.

- Problem Definition & Context
- User Research
- Ideation & Conceptualization
- Solution Design & Specification
- Testing & Transfer

User Research

Planning and conducting user research activities.

	Name Google Forms	Purpose Simple surveys and data collection	Go to website
	Name Typeform	Purpose Structured questionnaires with qualitative inputs	Go to website
	Name Microsoft Teams	Purpose Remote interviews and recordings	Go to website
	Name Otter.ai	Purpose Transcription of interview recordings	Go to website
	Name Google Sheets	Purpose Participant tracking and basic analysis	Go to website
	Name UserTesting	Purpose Participant recruitment and remote research sessions	Go to website
	Name Maze	Purpose Rapid evaluative research and participant recruitment	Go to website
	Name Ethnio	Purpose Targeted participant recruitment and screening	Go to website
	Name Miro	Purpose Collaborative mapping of user groups, and early assumptions	Go to website
	Name Notion	Purpose Project documentation, recruitment criteria, and preparation notes	Go to website
	Name Google Docs	Purpose Collaborative writing, interview guides, and consent documentation	Go to website